

Perfect Palm Sunday!

JESS – shakes her pompoms

POMPOMS AT THE READY! – Jess, Molly, Elaine and Olivia at Palm Sunday parade

By Molly

LAST term Stamfordham re-created Holy Week - our bit was Palm Sunday, the cheerleaders prepared a cheer with a spot of rock and roll. The village all came together for a welcome, and at the end of the week - Jesus was crucified. Last of all two of his friends took him down from the cross and to the tomb... At the end of the day, Mary came running because Jesus had gone from the tomb where he had been left. We made a film of our work and were very excited to be working with the village!
